ZACHARY DEPUE APPOINTED CONCERTMASTER OF NAPLES PHILHARMONIC

NAPLES, FL (March 13, 2023)— Artis—Naples, home of The Baker Museum and the Naples Philharmonic, is pleased to announce that after serving as acting concertmaster since September 2022, violinist Zachary DePue has been appointed concertmaster of the Naples Philharmonic.

“We are delighted to announce Zachary DePue’s appointment as Concertmaster of the Naples Philharmonic,” said Artis—Naples CEO and President Kathleen van Bergen. “Zach’s artistic prowess, leadership, versatility as a performer and musical curiosity have converged to make him an ideal concertmaster for our orchestra, and we are so pleased to have him in this role.”

“It is an honor to be named to this position with an orchestra that I love being a part of,” said DePue. “It brings me great joy to come to work here every day and to connect with our audiences and community through music. I’m grateful to my colleagues in the orchestra and on the podium for this vote of confidence. Thank you.”

DePue joined the Naples Philharmonic in September 2022, after spending more than a decade as concertmaster of the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra (ISO). He was one of the youngest concertmasters in the country when he was appointed to that post in 2007. DePue served that orchestra as a passionate and dedicated leader both in and outside the concert hall, having been named a member of the Stanley K. Lacy Executive Leadership Series, and having connected Indianapolis’ emerging leaders to the issues and needs of the community. He rose to international prominence as a founding member of Time for Three, the category-defying trio with which he performed for 15 years.

DePue graduated in 2002 from the Curtis Institute of Music in Philadelphia, where he served as concertmaster of the Curtis Symphony Orchestra and studied with renowned violinists Ida Kavafian and Jaime Laredo. He is a former member of The Philadelphia Orchestra, where he performed in the first violin section for five years.

NAPLES PHILHARMONIC

The Naples Philharmonic has long been recognized as one of the cornerstones of Southwest Florida's arts community. As part of Artis—Naples, the Naples Philharmonic performs more than 140 orchestral and chamber music concerts, as well as opera and ballet, education, community and special event concerts annually between September and June in the 1,477-seat Hayes Hall, the 283-seat Daniels Pavilion and around the Southwest Florida region. The Naples Philharmonic has enjoyed a history of working with world-class music directors, with Andrey Boreyko being the fourth and most recent. Following the completion of Boreyko's eighth and final season in 2022, a search is underway for the Sharon and Timothy Ubben Music Director position. As the search continues, Artis—Naples has appointed violinist James Ehnes as an artistic partner through the 2023-24 season, working with Naples Philharmonic musicians in a variety of settings with a focus on inspiring and embodying a high level of artistry. Podium leadership includes Principal Pops Conductor Jack Everly, celebrating 13 years in this role in the 2022-23 season and bringing pops performances that celebrate music in its many forms. In 2017, conductor Radu Paponiu was named assistant conductor of the Naples Philharmonic and director of the Naples Philharmonic Youth Orchestra, and in 2019 he was promoted to associate conductor. Starting with the 2022-23 season, Alvin Ho has joined the artistic team as assistant conductor of the Naples Philharmonic.

THE BAKER MUSEUM

The Baker Museum is one of the foremost fine art museums in Southwest Florida. The museum hosts several traveling exhibitions annually to complement installations of works from its permanent collection. Comprising more than 4,000 objects, the museum's broad holdings of 20th- and 21st-century art reflect the generosity and commitment of area collectors. Of particular strength are The Baker Museum's collections of American and Mexican modern art, including significant gifts from the collection of Olga Hirshhorn.

With more than two decades of collecting and exhibiting, the museum is dedicated to stewardship and scholarship from both its growing permanent collection and outside sources. At the same time, The Baker Museum seeks out the best traveling exhibitions from the leading arts institutions in the world—including recently the Crystal Bridges Museum of American Art and the Smithsonian Institutions—to enrich the Southwest Florida community. In fall 2020, Artis—Naples celebrated the opening of an 18,000-square-foot expansion of The Baker Museum, designed by Weiss/Manfredi Architecture/Landscape/Urbanism, that created new spaces for multidisciplinary exploration and social interaction.

EDUCATION AND COMMUNITY

In addition to creating and presenting visual and performing arts, Artis—Naples provides robust education and community activities for students of all ages. Each season thousands of Collier County Public Schools interact with Artis—Naples education programming both on its cultural campus and in classrooms. The Lifelong Learning program provides engaging lectures and study opportunities for adults seeking to engage more deeply with the arts.

The Friends of Artis—Naples, with more than 3,400 households who give $75 or more, offers activities, travel experiences and events geared toward creating a deeper relationship between patrons and the arts.

In 2017, Artis—Naples acquired the Naples International Film Festival (NIFF), expanding its film offerings and providing a platform for the festival’s continued excellence and growth. In 2019, NIFF was named one of MovieMaker Magazine’s “Top 25 Coolest Film Festivals in the World,” and in 2022 celebrated its 14th year in the community.
